FRANKLIN LAKES - OAKLAND SUBURBAN NEWS

Northwestern Mutual is honoring Franklin Lakes financial representative Philip R. Coffman, CFP®, ChFC®, CLU® with membership to its 2015 Forum Group, which recognizes individuals for an outstanding year of helping clients plan for and achieve financial security.

Coffman is affiliated with Cannataro Park Avenue Financial based in Midtown Manhattan. This is the fifth time that Coffman received the Forum honor.

"We're proud of financial professionals like Phil who excel at guiding their clients on a path to financial security," said Northwestern Mutual President Greg Oberland. "According to our 2015 Planning and Progress Study, people who work with an advisor are twice as likely to feel 'very financially secure.' Financial experts like Phil are helping to make the goal of financial security a reality for many Americans."

Forum honorees were recognized at a leadership conference held in November. At the conference, honorees learned new insights from prominent speakers, gain access to advanced training and leadership development and shared knowledge with fellow colleagues.

The annual Forum conference is an exclusive achievement, with approximately five percent of Northwestern Mutual's more than 6,000 financial representatives invited to attend.
